

WATER PRACTICE GROUP ASSOCIATE ATTORNEY

Job Title:	Associate Attorney
Reports to:	Managing Attorney and Practice Group Leaders
FLSA Status:	Exempt
Full/Part Time:	Full Time

SUMMARY

The Associate will perform substantive representation and client advocacy in the firm's Water Practice Group and Government Relations Practice Group. The Associate in this position is a self-starter with strong attention to detail and exceptional analytical skills. The ideal candidate is able to work within a fast-paced, demanding environment and motivated to develop a career in private practice.

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES

- Analyze, evaluate, synthesize, and research case law, statutes, regulations, and documents impacting the firm's clients
- Strong written and critical thinking skills that lead to comprehensive and persuasive writings
- Communicate clearly and logically (both orally and in writing) internally and with clients, consultants, opposing counsel, and regulatory agencies and courts
- Ability to handle complex problems utilizing initiative, creativity, and sound professional judgment.
- Work both independently and as a contributing team member

- Prepare, organize, and manage documents from multiple sources and respond to requests (admissions, disclosures, motions, orders, etc.)
- Draft pleadings, motions, and briefs
- Effectively communicate and coordinate with the managing attorney(s) and support staff on project management

JOB REQUIREMENTS

- Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.D.) from an accredited law school
- Licensed to practice law in the state of Texas
- 1-3 years of experience in administrative law
- Demonstrated interest in private practice and the practice of water and water utility law
- Westlaw or Lexis Nexis experience

BENEFITS

Lloyd Gosselink offers a competitive salary and a comprehensive total rewards package including medical, dental, vision insurance coverage; short-term disability; employer-funded long-term disability and long-term care; a 401(k) plan with employer contribution; paid parking in downtown

Austin; cell phone reimbursement, Personal Time Off, holiday and incentive pay; paid parental leave; and an Employee Assistance Program.

Lloyd Gosselink is proud to represent the people of Texas, and the firm celebrates diversity and is committed to creating a workplace where our unique life experiences align to enhance service to our clients, while enriching the work-life of our employees. We are an equal opportunity employer.

CONTACT

Learn more at <https://www.lglawfirm.com/>. Please submit your résumé and salary requirements to Jeanne Rials at info@lglawfirm.com.